C/MF/TR  Attachment of Jur  1.	Approved For Release 2003/08/27 : CIA-RDP60-00594A000200050017-2 💆 – 🚜 -	7
Attachment of Jur  1.
Attachment of Jur  1.
1. Is attached to effective  18 January 1956 for a period of six to nine months in accordance with the agreement reached between  JOTP.  2. It was determined that oould receive vuluable training in FI and CE activities and better prepare himself for an operational deak assignment as a result of being attached to the  3. It is tentatively planned for to attend the integrated Operations Course beginning sensetime in the summer of 1956 or one of the six-week Operations Familiarization Courses beginning in Fav or July. The JOTP will arrange any other special training for which the may require.  h. The Junior Officer Traines is required to report through his supervisor to the C/JOTP at the end of the first, second, fourth, sixth, and minth months of his attachment on (a) the type of work he is performing, (b) the menner in which he is being supervised, and (c) plans for changes in his attachment or special training that say be required in the future. A member of the Staff of the JOT Program will consult from time to time with the JOT's supervisor on his progress and development.  5. It is requested that handle the T&A record on Any leave which the Traines may wish to take is to be arranged with his supervisor before approval is requested from the C/JOTP. Overtime will not be paid by the Office of Training unless it has been requested by the supervisor and approved by the C/JOTP prior to the performance of such overtime.  6. It is requested that provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the C/JOTP at the earliest possible time.  EMMERCEDES, IN	C/WE ry 1	9 56
1. It is entatively planned for to attend the integrated operations Course beginning sometime in the summer of 1956 or one of the six-week Operations Familiarization Courses beginning in Fi and CE activities and better prepare himself for an operations Course beginning sometime in the summer of 1956 or one of the six-week Operations Familiarization Courses beginning in far or July. The JOTP will arrange any other special training for which the many require.  1. The Junior Officer Trainee is required to report through his supervisor to the C/JUTP at the end of the first, second, fourth, sixth, and ninth months of his attachment on (a) the type of work he is performing, (b) the manner in which he is being supervised, and (c) plans for changes in his attachment or special training that may be required in the future. A member of the Staff of the JOT Program will consult from time to time with the JOT's supervisor on his progress and development.  5. It is requested that handle the Take record on Any leave which the Traines may wish to take is to be arranged with his supervisor before approved by the C/JUTP prior to the performance of such overtime.  6. It is requested that prepare a statement of the training program which they will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the C/JUTP at the earliest possible time.  FOR THE DIRECTOR OF TRAINING:	C/JOTP/TR
16 January 1956 for a period of six to nine months in accordance with the agreement reached between JOTP.  2. It was determined that	Attachment of Jun
16 January 1956 for a period of six to nine months in accordance with the agreement reached between JOTP.  2. It was determined that operational desk assignment as a result of being attached to the  3. It is tentatively planned for to attend the integrated Operations Course beginning sensetime in the summer of 1956 or one of the six-week Operations Familiarisation Courses beginning in few or July. The JOTP will arrange any other special training for which the say require.  1. The Junior Officer Trainee is required to report through his supervisor to the C/JOTP at the end of the first, second, fourth, sixth, and minth months of his attachment on (a) the type of work he is performing, (b) the manner in which he is being supervised, and (c) plans for changes in his attachment or special training that may be required in the future. A member of the Staff of the JOT Program will consult from time to time with the JOT's supervisor on his progress and development.  5. It is requested that handle the T&A record on Any leave which the Trainee may wish to take is to be arranged with his supervisor before approval is requested from the C/JOTP. Overtime will not be paid by the Office of Training unless it has been requested by the supervisor and approved by the C/JOTP prior to the performance of such overtime.  6. It is requested that propage a statement of the training program which they will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the C/JOTP at the earliest possible time.  6. Wells, PEB; w	18 January 1956 for a period of six to nine months in accordance with	]
Operations Course beginning sometime in the summer of 1956 or one of the six-week Operations Familiarization Courses beginning in New or July. The JOTP will arrange any other special training for which the may require.  4. The Junior Officer Trainee is required to report through his supervisor to the G/JOTP at the end of the first, second, fourth, sixth, and minth months of his attachment on (a) the type of work he is performing, (b) the manner in which he is being supervised, and (c) plans for changes in his attachment or special training that may be required in the future. A member of the Staff of the JOT Program will consult from time to time with the JOT's supervisor on his progress and development.  5. It is requested that handle the Tak record on Any leave which the Trainee may wish to take is to be arranged with his supervisor before approved is requested from the G/JOTP. Overtime will not be paid by the Office of Training unless it has been requested by the supervisor and approved by the C/JOTP prior to the performance of such overtime.  6. It is requested that prepare a statement of the training program which they will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the G/JOTP at the earliest possible time.  FOR THE DIRECTOR OF TRAINING:	training in FI and CE activities and better persons bimarle com-sixth, and ninth months of his attachment on (a) the type of work he is performing, (b) the manner in which he is being supervised, and (c) plans for changes in his attachment or special training that may be required in the future. A member of the Staff of the JUT Program will consult from time to time with the JUT's supervisor on his progress and development.  5. It is requested that handle the T&A record on Any leave which the Traines may wish to take is to be arranged with his supervisor before approval is requested from the C/JUTP. Overtime will not be paid by the Office of Training unless it has been requested by the supervisor and approved by the C/JUTP prior to the performance of such overtime.  6. It is requested that prepare a statement of the training program which they will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the C/JUTP at the earliest possible time.  R/WLE: PEB: jw	Operations Course beginning sometime in the summer of 1956 or one of the six-week Operations Familiarization Courses beginning in New or July. The JOTP will arrange any other special training for his supervisor before approval is requested from the C/JCTP. Overtime will not be paid by the Office of Training unless it has been requested by the supervisor and approved by the C/JCTP prior to the performance of such overtime.  6. It is requested that prepare a statement of the training program which they will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the C/JCTP at the earliest possible time.  FOR THE DIRECTOR OF TRAINING:	sixth, and ninth months of his attachment on (a) the type of work he is performing, (b) the manner in which he is being supervised, and (c) plans for changes in his attachment or special training that may be required in the future. A member of the Staff of the JOT Program will consult from time to time with the JOT's supervisor on his program and	1
program which they will provide for and indicate the nature of the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training program should be forwarded to the C/JOTP at the earliest possible time.  FOR THE DIRECTOR OF TRAINING:	his supervisor before approval is requested from the C/JCTP. Overtime will not be paid by the Office of Training unless it has been requested by the supervisor and approved by the C/JCTP prior to the particular	ì
FOR THE DIRECTOR OF TRAINING:  R/WLE; PEB; jw	the work which he will be doing and the manner in which it will aid his development as an intelligence officer. This training
0 & 1 - Addu-
U & 1 - Addressee	 or the control of th
1 - Jorn	T	